STAR GAZING

"Putting me in this picture is like giving an alcoholic his own brewery," said WALTER MATTHAU while on location at the beautiful Ruidoso Downs racetrack.

The always witty and always wonderful Walter was in the land of enchantment filming CASEY'S SHADOW. Walter has been known to place a bet from time to time. Now, semi-reformed, Walter learned a good lesson when he lost $183,000 on the horses in 1958. But now, said Walter, "Now I can pass a betting window without the uncontrollable urge to empty my wallet."

Did he have any help in overcoming his problem? Matthau recalled a visit he once paid a psychiatrist in hopes of curing his urge to gamble. "After the second appointment," he reveals, "I became so depressed that I went straight to the track and lost $1,000. But it cured me forever."

Of gambling?, we asked.

"No," Matthau shot back with a grin, "Of psychiatrists." (There's nothing like playing Matthau's straight man!)

What was his single biggest gamble? "Open heart surgery," he replied.

Matthau underwent an emergency bypass operation in 1976—and thankfully emerged as good as new. He was on the set of CASEY'S SHADOW performing some mighty strenuous action and fight scenes.

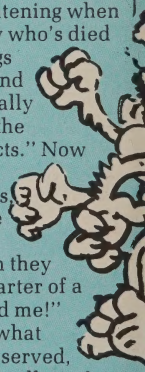
Be sure to watch our favorite, loveable, crumple-faced, super talented star on Fanfare this month!

First they burned Atlanta in GONE WITH THE WIND. Now, they're burning Houston in THE SWARM. But they're burning Houston because of its sudden population boom—the arrival of 22 million killer bees!

MICHAEL CAINE tells us what it was like to play opposite a whirring swarm of bees. "I knew it was going to be a very big action picture . . . but I wasn't exactly prepared for 22,000,000 bees, which I understand is a rough estimate of the number we used, although I'm told the figure may be as high as 30,000,000.

Was he scared?

Michael said not really, "I'm bigger than they are." He quickly added, "but it becomes frightening when you play a guy who's died from bee stings and the face and body are literally covered with the crawling insects." Now that's scary!



He continues, "I did become somewhat alarmed when they released a quarter of a million around me!"

Now that's what we call one reserved, calm cool and collected Englishman!

PATTY DUKE ASTIN is also in THE SWARM and Patty was more apprehensive about the bees than Michael. Patty said, "it was terrifying." Although the millions of bees used in the film were not supposed to have stingers, Patty said, "I kept thinking that one bee would slip by with its stinger intact and that it would find me."

Fortunately, for Patty and others in the crew, the bees politely behaved themselves.

Join Fanfare in February for this exciting science fiction film.

Keep your eye on this rising star . . . 20-year-old THERESA RUSSELL. A fresh-faced California girl who likes horses . . . and acting. She co-stars on Fanfare this month with none other than DUSTIN HOFFMAN in STRAIGHT TIME.

We predict you'll be seeing more of pretty, multi-talented Theresa. Evidently Hoffman agrees! He produced the movie and helped pick Theresa as his co-star. And does Hoffman give another super performance in STRAIGHT TIME? Well, super is an understatement. Hoffman just keeps getting better and better!

Until next time, keep watching those heavenly bodies—one of which is KATHARINE ROSS. She, too, is in THE SWARM next month on Fanfare. Katharine is deceptively petite off screen. Only 5'3" tall and barely 100 pounds. She has shoulder length auburn hair, big hazel eyes, a deep husky voice and beaucoups of sex appeal!

The Other Side of Midnight

Sidney Sheldon's best-selling novel is now a powerful and romantic movie on your Fanfare screen! "The Other Side of Midnight" follows the life of a beautiful French girl, Noelle (Marie-France Pisier) as she moves from innocence to become an influential and calculating woman.

Noelle falls in love with Larry Douglas (John Beck), a dashing American flyer during the 1940's. She loves him yet despises him and sets course for revenge by becoming the mistress of a Greek multi-millionaire (Raf Vallone).

Years later, Noelle discovers Larry has married another woman, Cathy (Susan Sarandon). Reunited, Noelle and Larry plot to murder Cathy. Clu Gulager co-stars as Bill Fraser.

This lavish movie was filmed on location in Paris, Greece, the Luray Caverns in Virginia and in

A romance that spans the globe . . . and time. A story of passion, power . . . and murder.

JAN. 1-5

Washington, D.C. The set for the murder scene alone cost $55,000 to construct.

Produced by Frank Yablans and Howard Koch, Jr. Directed by Charles Jarrott. Music by Michel Legrand.

Rated "R". Contains nudity and suggestive scenes.

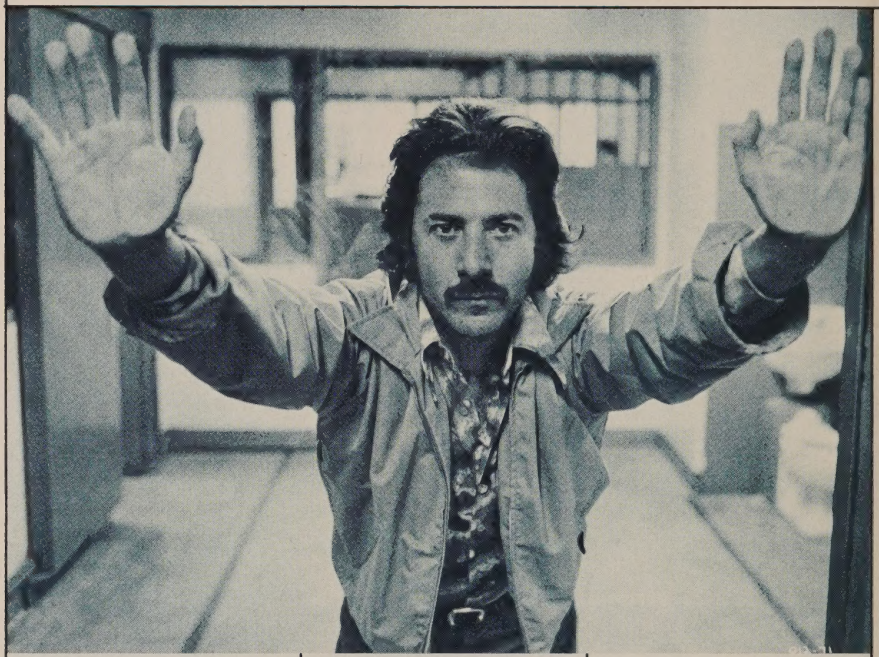
"STRAIGHT TIME"

When the world is insensitive to your needs . . . it's twice as hard to go straight.



Dustin Hoffman stars as an ex-con who finds it difficult to adjust to his new life "outside."

Mark another one up for Hoffman in "Straight Time" and add "Straight Time" to Dustin Hoffman's long list of sensitive portrayals in films such as "The Graduate," "Midnight Cowboy," "Lenny," "All the Presidents Men" and "Marathon Man."

Theresa Russell plays Jenny, Hoffman's partner in a romantic, moody and starkly dramatic relationship. This is only Miss Russell's second film. You may remember her in her first movie as Robert Mitchum's daughter in "The Last Tycoon."

Hoffman's friends, Jerry and Willie, are played by Gary Busey and Harry Dean Stanton. The uncaring parole officer, Earl Frank, is played by M. Emmet Walsh.

You're sure to enjoy Hoffman as Max Dembo. A big city guy who searches for happiness and love . . . but the lure to return to a life of crime is almost overpowering.

Rated "R". Contains violence, language and suggestive scenes.

'CASEY'S SHADOW'

JAN. 6-10

Lloyd Bourdelle (Walter Matthau) is a crusty old Cajun who has suffered a lifelong losing streak. He finally has a chance to make it big when his son's broken down mare foals a graceful quarter-horse with promise. His son, Casey, and the horse, Casey's Shadow, are inseparable. News of the horse's racing abilities quickly spreads.

Horsewoman, Sarah Blue (Alexis Smith) wants to buy Casey's Shadow as does another wealthy horseman, Tom Patterson (Murray Hamilton). But Bourdelle wants it all. He decides to keep the horse and train him for the world's richest race—the million dollar All American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs.

"Casey's Shadow" is chock-full of hopes, dreams and conflict with some very humorous moments.

Co-starring Michael Hershewe as Casey, Stephan Burns as his brother, Randy; and Andrew A. Rubin as Casey's oldest brother, Buddy. With Harry Caesar as Calvin Lebec; Robert Webber as Mike March, and Susan Myers as Kelly.

Filmed on location in Louisiana and New Mexico.

CONVOY

Kristofferson and MacGraw . . . Ain't nothin' gonna get in their way!

CONVOY stars Kris Kristofferson as "Rubber Duck," the tough leader of a band of truckers rebelling against corrupt policemen and equally corrupt politicians.

The concept for the film was taken from C.W. McCall's hit song, "Convoy," which captured the imagination of country-western, truck-drivin' fans throughout America.

It's hard to believe that this is only Ali MacGraw's fourth film. Yet her first three have already grossed over $200 million in worldwide distribution. She won an Academy Award as best actress for her role in "Love Story," and received rave reviews in "Goodbye, Columbus."

Kris Kristofferson was born in Brownsville, Texas. A former Rhodes scholar, Kris is an intregal part of the country-western music scene. He, like Ali, has had fantastic box office success with his few movies.

Co-starring are Burt Young as "Big Pen" and veteran actor, Ernest Borgnine as "Sheriff Lyle R. Wallace." Madge Sinclair plays "Widow Woman" and Franklyn Ajaye plays "Spider Mike."

CONVOY is a tough, hard-hitting drama filmed in and around Albuquerque, New Mexico.

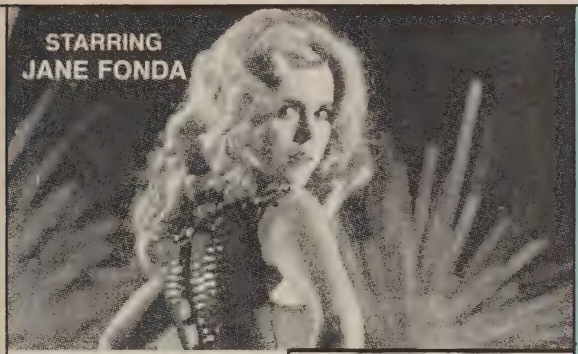
"BARBARELLA"

JAN. 11-15



Jane Fonda stars as a far-out lady of the future . . . known to all in the galaxy as "Barbarella."

The year is 40,000 A.D. and Barbarella has a mission—to bring a renegade inventor back to Earth. Fonda plays the nonchalant heroine to the hilt as she fights off strange dangers between intimate affairs all in the name of future law and disorder.

"Barbarella" is an adult comic strip of a film directed by the imaginative Roger Vadim.

Hold on to your seat and get ready for belly laughs galore as Fonda does a great "take-off" in outer space!

Contains occasional nudity and suggestive scenes.

GRAY LADY DOWN

The "Gray Lady" is the nuclear submarine "Neptune." The Neptune is coming home . . . but unbeknownst to its crew, it is on a collision course with a Norwegian freighter.

The ships collide. The Neptune's stern splits open. Its hull quickly sinks 1450 feet below the water surface and is precariously balanced on a ledge with its Commanding Officer (Charlton Heston) and 41 crewmen miraculously still alive!

A dramatic rescue mission ensues headed by Captain Harold Bennett (Stacy Keach) with Captain Donald Gates (David Carradine) and his engineer Mickey (Ned Beatty) operating an experimental recovery vessel.

Thrills, chills and mounting suspense are in store for you in the most exciting rescue adventure ever filmed.

Also stars Rosemary Forsyth as Mrs. Blanchard, Ronny Cox as Samuelson. With Melendy Britt as Mrs. Bennett.

Barnaby and Me

Once a con-man, always a con-man! And once a comedian, always a comedian! Sid Caesar is one of the great comics of our time and this time he plays an international swindler, Leo Fisk, who's wanted by the syndicate. (He just took their Hong Kong branch for millions of dollars!)

Fisk finds refuge in the home of Jennifer Willoughby-Palmer (Juliet Mills) and her daughter, Linda. Linda has a pet Koala Bear named Barnaby. It's through Barnaby's eyes that we see Leo's hilarious adventures as he tries one last con to pay the millions back to the syndicate.

Featured is a classic scene with Caesar and Australian tennis champ, John Newcombe.

Co-stars. Sally Boyden.

AMERICAN HOT WAX

Get set to rock. Get ready to roll. It's "American Hot Wax" starring Tim McIntire as the famous New York disc jockey, Alan Freed. When everyone else said rock 'n' roll would never make it, Freed said otherwise.

With rock such a well-established and accepted musical form today, we tend to forget its turbulent beginnings. It was different in the '50's. Legislators wanted it banned. Oldsters thought it repulsive. And police saw it as an invitation to riot. But teenagers loved it and so did DJ's like Alan Freed. Freed fought them all. He and people like him were instrumental in the survival of rock 'n' roll.

Relive the exciting beginning of a new musical era with such stars as Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Screaming Jay Hawkins and the
